

FLYING GLORY WELCOMES OUR MEN BACK FROM WAR

Nazi Saboteur Disrupts Arrival Of Fleet.

LOS ANGELES, May 4 (AP)-The Patriotic Princess appeared in the skies over the Los Angeles Harbor today as a portion of the Navel fleet came home.

Flying Glory arrived in the nick of time as the arriving soldiers were attacked by the super saboteur, calling herself Frau Nazi, attacked the harbor.

Vowing revenge for the death of her fuhrer, the Nazi female made an all out attack on the America soldiers.

Flying Glory appeared soon after the attack began, and the two women power houses fought over and through the harbor in a war all their own that lasted over half an hour.

"I've fought her before," Flying Glory would later tell our reporter, "and know the destruction she could bring." She went on to say that she was glad to be there to protect our fighting men.

The young heroine was able to pull the battle away from the fleet and the rest of the harbor populated with workmen and ships. Eventually she defeated the Axis

Annie with what must have been a devastating punch.

"She suddenly collapsed and fell to the ocean below," Flying Glory said.

A team was sent out to the area just beyond the harbor, but after a six hour search no body was found. Officials are confident that the saboteur is dead and like the rest of the Nazi's in Germany wont be bothering America again.

Joining the Celebration

After the battle, Flying Glory returned to the harbor where she was met with a fan fair and a rain of naval hats flying about her.

"I don't really deserve this," she said, "I only did a small part in the war. It's all these men who risked their lives on the front lines everyday that this day is about. The celebration should be for them."

Every the patriot, Flying Glory stayed at the harbor for the next two ours to guarantee that there was no more sneak attacks by any enemy forces.

CELEBRATION - Flying Glory proudly walks arm in arm with a naval soldier and a member of the harbor MPs.